

defence science institute

Creating Defence Science Research Networks for Australia

DSI - Defence Grants

*US-Australia International Multidisciplinary University
Research Initiative (AUSMURI)*

Applications for AUSMURI Round 4 are now open with a topic focus of 'Cyber Autonomy through Robust Learning and Effective Human/Bot Teaming'.

Australian universities involved in approved submissions on designated topics under the US Multidisciplinary University Research Initiative (MURI) can apply for a grant of up to $3 million to fund their project.

Report Now Available

Australian Trade and Investment Commission (Austrade) has released the Australian Defence Cyber Industry Capability Report & Matrix - showcasing some of the leading Australian companies that are servicing the global defence market.

---

Call for Solutions -Defence Innovation Unit

The Department of Defence (DoD) seeks to transform its defensive cyber operations by reducing a large number of single-purpose, human-intensive tools to a seamless operator console of multi-purpose, Artificial Intelligence/Machine Learning (AI/ML)-driven solutions.

---

Seeking Expressions of Interest - TechNet Cyber 2020

Team Defence Australia is seeking Expressions of Interests (EOIs) from Australian cyber and defence industry to participate in TechNet Cyber 2020, Baltimore USA, 1-5 June 2020.

Deadline: Friday 6th March 2020